It has the sole responsibility, on behalf of the Faculty, of recommending policy changes to the president of the institute for consideration by the Chancellor and the State Board of Higher Education.

"Policy," under this Charter, means a general rule for the conduct of the institute that affects:

- (a) The purposes or goals of the institute;
- (b) The nature and scope of its program; or
- (c) Its standards of teaching, research, and scholarship.

It has the responsibility of considering all proposed policy changes which affect the general welfare of the Faculty. The Senate, furthermore, may consider and recommend specific means of insuring the continuance of academic freedom at this institute.

Article I:       COMPOSITION OF THE SENATE

Section 1:       Qualifications and Eligibility:

- A. The electorate will be those full-time faculty members of Oregon Institute of Technology. This includes the ranks of research assistant and research associate.
- B. Only those full-time faculty members who are not members of the President's Council or Academic Council are eligible for election to the Senate except that the Academic Council may elect two of its members to the Senate. These two senators will have full voting rights but will not hold any office. The admission to the Senate of these two senators is contingent upon the reciprocal admission of the Senate president to the President's Council and the Senate vice-president to the Academic Council. The president of Oregon Institute of Technology is not eligible for Senate membership.

Section 2:       Membership:

- A. The Senate shall be composed of six senators elected at large and senators elected from each of the faculty groups listed in the Senate Bylaws, Article I, Section 2; each faculty group listed in that section is authorized to elect one senator for every ten full-time faculty members or major fraction thereof.

Section 3: Election Procedure: Senate elections shall be conducted by the Elections Committee not later than the first two weeks of May. Elections for all senators shall be by secret ballot. Elections shall be conducted in two stages: a nomination and an election, in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Senate Bylaws, Article II, Section 1.

Section 4: Alternates: Each senator will designate an alternate from his or her elective group who will be expected to attend those meetings which the elected senator is unable to attend. If a senator is unable to complete the term of office, the alternate will automatically be designated as senator and will serve until the next regular election.

Section 5: Responsibilities: Members of the Faculty Senate are the uninstructed representatives of their constituents. It shall be the responsibility of the members to seek the opinions of their constituents, but having done so, the members of the Faculty Senate shall feel free to make decisions and vote on matters according to their own reasoned judgment.

Article II: ORGANIZATION OF THE SENATE

Section 1: Officers: The officers of the Senate shall be elected by the Senate membership at a special meeting at the end of the academic year and shall include, but not be restricted to: a president, a vice-president, and a secretary. To initiate the recall of a senator, a petition signed by twenty-five percent of the Faculty that they represent must be delivered to the chair of the Senate Elections Committee. Upon validation of said petition, the chair of the Elections Committee will immediately conduct a recall vote among the petitioning faculty group. A simple majority is required for recall.

The committee shall elect its own chair. The committee shall conduct all hearings on matters of conflict between members of the Faculty. It shall also be the responsibility of the committee to reduce friction and forestall conflict among faculty members by investigating sources or potential sources of such friction and conflict which are referred to the attention of the committee and by recommending appropriate action to concerned individuals or groups.
- D. Faculty Welfare Committee: The Senate president shall annually appoint members of the Faculty, and designate one senator as chair, to consider those matters which affect the welfare of the Faculty.

I. Subcommittees: Standing and ad hoc committees may designate necessary subcommittees, subject to Senate approval.

Section 5: Meetings: During the academic year, the Senate shall meet on the first Tuesday of each month, except that the last meeting of the academic year shall be held on the Tuesday of the week preceding spring term final examinations. The secretary of the Senate shall make such provisions as are necessary to insure that voting shall be by members of the Senate only. At the discretion of the president of the Senate, a special meeting may be called. The proposed amendment may, on second reading, be amended on the floor of the Senate, but the proposal, as amended, must be referred to a committee for clearance on clarity of language or possible conflict with other sections of the Charter. A majority of valid votes cast on the mail ballot shall constitute an effective vote.
