

EXEC COMM
3.1 FROM DEE THOMPSON
22 FEB 14

Building Friendships with Oregon Tech

Be or recruit:

- A reader (contact Julie Daniels)
- A board member (contact Dee Thompson or Tracy Ricketts)
- A student (contact Admissions office or arrange a tour)
- A donor (corporation, foundation, individual) (contact Tracy Ricketts)

Attend Oregon Tech Events

- Be visible mingle, invite a friend (or two to join you)
- Sponsor (whole or part) an event
- Attend a Foundation board meeting or "event" (faculty thank you reception)

Tour of campus - K Falls and Wilsonville

- Set up tour for potential board member, reader, donor, student (parent or grandparent of a potential student)

Be informed and inform others about Oregon Tech's scholastic programs and rankings - spread the word (www.oit.edu)

- Visit the website frequently
- Host a house party, invite Dr. Maples to speak (glowing comments)
- Speak at civic club (Kiwanis, Rotary, etc)
- Take every opportunity to have a conversation about Oregon Tech
- Wear your Oregon Tech pin and shirt
- Hand out a business card
- Know impressive statistics and rankings

Promote planned giving

- Offer free consultation with Gene Christian (individual, couple, small group)
- Review our own portfolios and see if there is a fit for a donation now or later
- Talk to your estate planning attorney and financial advisor and give them materials about Oregon Tech that they could share with other clients

Make contributions/donations to the Oregon Tech Foundation

- Annual donation
- Planned gift
- Contribute monthly
- Highest priorities at this time:
 - Fund for Oregon Tech (most flexible)
 - Faculty/Staff Development Fund
 - Student Projects Fund
 - Finish Line Scholarships