

EMT and Paramedic Scholarships

EMT and Paramedic Scholarships for Underserved Populations

Diversity is critical to improving the quality of the EMS industry and we need your help.

In partnership with American Medical Response (AMR) Foundation, Oregon Institute of Technology (Oregon Tech) and Oregon Health and Science University (OHSU), EMT and paramedic scholarships are available to individuals who identify as being a part of an underserved community.

Who Is Eligible?

These scholarships are broadly targeted at improving diversity in a number of ways, including:

- Racial and ethnic minorities;
- Individuals who identify as LGBTQ;
- First-generation in your family to graduate from college;
- Individuals from low social-economic circumstances;
- Individuals who have geographic boundaries preventing their further education (rural settings).

Six Scholarship Awards Available:

- Three $1,000 scholarships toward our EMT course
- Three $5,000 scholarships toward our Paramedic Program

Deadline: May 31, 2024 @ 5pm

To learn more, or receive an application, please contact Chris Hamper at Christopher.hamper@oit.edu

Oregon Tech and OHSU are nationally recognized leaders in Emergency Medical Services education. We offer one of the few university programs in the country with joint degree programs between a medical school (OHSU) and a leading polytechnic university (Oregon Tech).

Oregon TECH

Oregon Institute of Technology