

Oregon Institute of Technology Online MSDH Degree Information

Designed for working professionals, the program combines 15 manageable 10-week courses with a practical thesis or capstone project, providing a clear and flexible pathway to earning your graduate degree.

Your path to earning a Master of Science in Dental Hygiene from Oregon Institute of Technology includes the following graduation requirements:

- Maintain a 3.0 GPA or higher
- Satisfactorily complete all graduate courses
- All graduate work must be completed within a five-year period

Dental Hygiene Required Courses (Ten 10-week Courses)

Course Number	Course Name	Credit Hours
DH 520	Multidisciplinary Health	3
DH 530	Leadership, Advocacy, and Global Health	3
DH 550	Advanced Instructional Methods	3
DH 554	Practice and Career Management	3
DH 555	Clinical Teaching & Management	3
DH 560	Online Teaching Methods	3
DH 575	Research Principles I	3
DH 576	Research Principles II	3
DH 577 or DH 579	Capstone I or Thesis I	3
DH 578 or DH 580	Capstone II or Thesis II	3

Elective Courses (Five 10-Week Courses) 15 credit hours

Tailor your learning experience by choosing five elective courses that match your career aspirations and personal interests from a list of options.