

Oregon Tech LEGO Camp – Rules and Code of Conduct

Guiding Principles

- To ensure that the rights of all individuals are protected while attending the camp
- To establish the safest and best possible learning environment for all camp participants
- To ensure that breaches of the rules and code of conduct are treated in a fair and consistent manner

Expectations

- All parents and campers have the responsibility to treat one another, staff, and property with respect
- All parents and campers have the responsibility to act and behave in a way which does not endanger, intimidate, or interfere with the participation of others
- Campers have the responsibility to follow the instructions given by camp staff
- All parents and campers have the responsibility to behave according to this code of conduct

Rules – the following forms of behavior are considered a violation of this document and are unacceptable and could result in the immediate dismissal of camper(s):

- Cigarettes or any tobacco products, alcohol, non-prescribed drugs, weapons, and pornographic material MUST NOT be brought to camp
- Using language which is offensive, sexist, or racist
- Fighting, bullying, or any other forms of aggressive behavior
- Leaving camp boundaries without permission
- Behaving in a manner which is potentially dangerous to self and/or others
- Behaving in a manner which damages or vandalizes the property of others or the Oregon Tech campus

Any breach of the Rules or the Code of Conduct will initiate disciplinary action. Oregon Tech Youth Programs reserves the right to suspend or dismiss a camper's participation in camp activities, without refund or camp tuition, if such disciplinary action is required. Before such a decision is fully made, the camper and parent/guardian will meet with camp coordinator to determine the best course of action.

The student and parent/guardian must read and agree to adhere to the above Rules and Camper Code of Conduct of the Oregon Tech Youth Programs Summer Camp.
